

About our staff

Michael Gilmour
Community & Outreach Coordinator,
Manager of the Youth Hub

Mick established the Youth Hub in 2010 with the help of many volunteers, after a request from Fr Donnelly. His extensive experience includes playing Rugby League for the Canberra Raiders in the late 80's and 24 years as a member of NSW Police, where he attained the rank of Detective Sergeant. Mick is responsible for the Hub's welfare and outreach programs. He manages volunteering and seeks grant funding and community support for youth programs. Mick coaches Junior Rugby League and is a keen supporter of local sport.

Jayson Corr
Youth Worker

Jayson's association with the Youth Hub started through volunteering when it first opened. Jayson enjoys community work and holds a Certificate IV in Youth Work. He is responsible for the Afternoon Drop-in Centre, running the Hub's school holiday programs, and is program co-ordinator for Boy Space. Jayson coaches Junior Rugby League at both a club and representative level.

About our volunteers

Prior to working in the program, all volunteers must undergo Police and Working with Children checks. If you'd like to become a volunteer contact Mick Gilmour.
